I read at the bottom of your thoughts
I look for your wishes in a sigh
Show me the part of your heart that
Hide deep inside
I listen to all your silences
How beautiful it is to get lost in your eyes
Am I your dream? When you stay awake
And without anything around
You who are strength and courage
The destination on a journey
The meaning of my days
I will be there for now and forever
Love hug me
I want to protect you
We are the sun on a rainy day
Hold me tight tonight
Kiss my soul
We are true music that remains
Between billions of people
I recognized you in the confusion
Dissolve that smile from your face and
Let's go away
You who are really important
In every instant of mine
You are the melody
And you will never pass, ever
Love hug me
I want to protect you
We are the sun on a rainy day
Hold me tight tonight
Kiss my soul
We are true music that remains
We are not a breath of wind
We are not a moment
You know your place is forever here
Love hug me
I want to protect you
We are the sun on a rainy day
Hold me tight tonight
Kiss my soul
We are true music that remains
We are true music that remains
